But Not Radical

NEW-YORK, SUNDAY, JUNE 23, 1912.—FIVE PARTS—SIXTY PAGES.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

TAFT AND SHERMAN RENOMINATED; "RUMP" CONVENTION NAMES ROOSEVELT

Assemblage in Orchestra Hall Attended by About 150 Regular and Many Cast Out Delegates Meets to Form New Party.

EFFORT TO CLAIM REGULARITY

No Name Selected by "Progressives" and Attempt Will Be Made to Take Over Republican Electors and Organizations in Several States Beginning with Illinois-Great Crowd Watches Proceedings.

[By a Staff Correspondent of The Tribune.]

Chicago, June 22.-Theodore Roosevelt, in a speech in Orchestra Hall tonight, started a movement for the formation of a new national party. As many of the Roosevelt delegates and alternates as could be got together adopted resolutions previously prepared under the direction of Mr. Roosevelt and in which they said: "We hereby nominate Theodore Roosevelt as the candidate of our party for the office of President of the United States."

In reply the colonel said there were those who asked him and his friends to stay in the party "which has just fraudulently nominated for the Presidency a man who inspired and profited by the fraud." He declared that the convention had provided a means for a "fraudulently elected" national committee which four years from now might again overthrow the will of the voters at the

The colonel said that while he recognized in those who addressed the resolutions to him the "lawfully elected delegates to the Republican convention," he accepted their nomination on only one condition:

"I feel that the time has come when not only men who believe in progressive principles but all men who believe in those elementary maxims of public and private morality which must underlie every form of successful free government should join in one movement. I therefore ask you to go to your several homes to find out the sentiment of the people at home and then again come together, I suggest by mass convention, to nominate for the Presidency a Progressive candidate on a Progressive platform."

It is planned to take advantage of any friction which may be generated among the Democrats at Baltimore to swing into the new Progressive movement members of that party. Representatives of the colonel have already started for Baltimore to make overtures to the Progressives there. It was suggested to-day that the name of the new party be the National Progressive party. Ormsby McHarg, who framed up the Southern contests, has enlisted in the

"It is not true that I have had a break with the colonel," he declared. "I saw him to-day and offered my services. If the Democrats turn Mr. Bryan down in Baltimore we will have the chance of a century to unite with the Pro-

Representative George C. Curry, of New Mexico, is one of the scouts sent to the Baltimore convention to see what can be done toward splitting some of the Progressives away from the Democratic party. He is a former Rough Rider and an old friend of Colonel Roosevelt, by whom he was appointed Territorial Governor of New Mexico. He is now a Representative from that state, but declares that he will resign his seat, as he was elected as a Republican, and will work for the colonel's party.

PRENDERGAST DOES NOMINATING.

The speech nominating Colonel Roosevelt was made by Controller William A. Prendergast, of New York, who was to have presented the colonel's name to the regular Republican convention.

Dean William Draper Lewis, of the University of Pennsylvania Law School, who was to make one of the seconding speeches, delivered to-night's address which he had prepared for the Republican convention.

Representatives of twenty-two states composed the notification committee which informed Colonel Roosevelt of his nomination, and in a sense stood as sponsors for the movement. The committee consisted of Controller Prendergast, of New York; Meyer Lisner, of California; ex-Representative Richmond Pearson, of North Carolina; Frank Knox, of Michigan; Matthew Hale, of Massachusetts; A. R. Garford, Ohio; David Browning, Kentucky; Everard Bierer, jr., Utah; Walter Thompson, Vermont; Judge Oscar R. Hundley, Alabama; Judge Ben B. Lindsey, Colorado; Andrew Rahn, Minnesota; Judge Stevens, Iowa; Judge Lowder, North Dakota; William Allen White, Kansas; John C. Greenway, Arizona; ex-Governor John Franklin Fort, New Jersey; Colonel E. C. Carrington, Maryland; Pearl Wight, Louisiana; Lorenzo Dow, Washington; Walter Clyde Jones, Illinois, and Frank Frantz, Oklahoma.

About one hundred and fifty regular delegates and many cast out delegates attended the meeting.

The meeting, late in starting, was delayed by the regular delegates to the convention at the Coliseum, who remained until their states had been called on Retires at 75 Through Favor of the Presidential nomination. All the delegates instructed for Roosevelt wished to record their refusal to vote in the Taft convention.

Governor Hiram Johnson of California, who presided at the "rump" con- burne, seventy-five years old, for the last vention, arrived early with Gifford Pinchot, former chief forester; Amos Pinchot twenty-four years janitor of the apartand Governor Robert P. Bass, of New Hampshire.

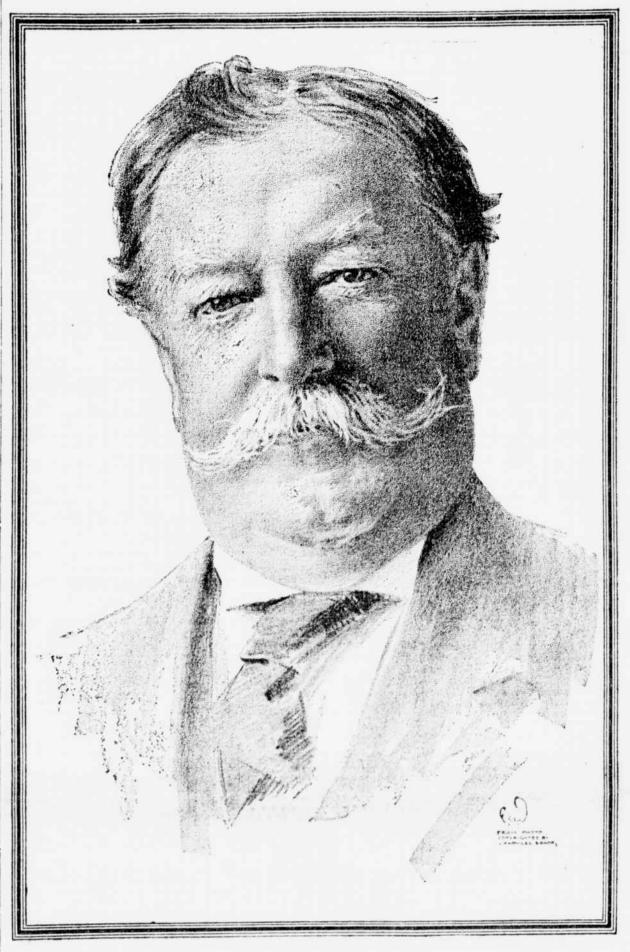

Among Roosevelt champions to arrive early were E. C. Carrington, of announces his intention to retire, having Baltimore, leader in the Maryland Roosevelt campaign; Robert C. Novario, of accumulated $150,000 through the friend-Cleveland, Ohio, who painted the portrait of Roosevelt which was suspended in financier and owner and chief tenant of the rear of the stage; Frank Knox, of Michigan, secretary of the state committee; Harry A. March and D. C. Henderson, of Ohio; William Flinn, of Pittsburg, recently resigned from the Republican National Committee; Francis Major Higginson demonstrated his J. Heney, of California; Alexander P. Moore, of Pennsylvania; James R. Gar- friendship for his faithful old servant field, of Ohio, and Senator Dixon, of Montana, Mr. Roosevelt's manager in the pre-convention campaign.

CALIFORNIA FIRST TO ARRIVE.

convention, marched into the hall. They bore their banner before them, and owns a home in Roslindale and a fine only as a preliminary to a national or- unsettling of the fundamental printhe cheers that greeted their appearance drowned out the music of the big farm in Stoneham. pipe organ. Governor Johnson escorted the California delegates to the stage.

Nebraska, one of the "insurgent" Republicans in the House, ascended to the time, but just what that will be I don't platform and took his place beside James Wickersham, delegate to Congress in Stoneham and enjoy myself for the

Just before Governor Johnson called the meeting to order the crowd both turned to Frank A. Munsey, who had just arrived with the news, and

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

Renominated for President of the United States by the Republican National Convention.

DELEGATES WHO DID NOT INDORSE PLATFORM.

1	Chicago, June 22	When the rolleal
1	was taken to-day	in the Republican
1		on the indersement
	of the platform the	Roosevelt delegates
1	put into effect their	policy of "silence."
	A table showing t	he number of dele-
1	gates, by states, no	t voting, follows:
1	Alabama 2	New York f
1	California 24	North Carolina 12
1	Indiana 7	Ohto 34
1	Kansas 18	Oklaho.na 15
	Maine 12	Oregon 2
1	Maryland 6	Pennsylvania 63
	lillinois 9	South Carelina 3
	Massachusetts 14	South Dakota 10
	Michigan 8	Tennesses 1
1	Minnesota 24	Texas 8
1	Mississippi 3	Vermont 2
1	Nebraska 16	Virginia 1
	New Jersey 28
1	Total

JANITOR SAVES $150,000

Boston, June 22.-Alphonso L. Sherment house known as the Hotel Agassiz, une. He advised Sherburne to buy Osceola and personally guaranteed him against loss. Sherburne invested his savings of $6,000 in 1,000 shares at $6 a when notified of his nomination:

"I don't know just what I shall do." rest of my life.

"I never drank a drop of liquor, al though I have always voted for license; to save their money and not to spend it foolishly, as it may be useful in their

THE FASCINATING WAY.
The All-the Way by Water Way.
HARBOR, RIVER, SOUND AND OUEAN
to Boston and points Down East, in Maine and the Maritime Provinces. Steamships
Massachusetts and Bunker Hill. See advi-

HOW STATE DELEGATIONS

	Delegates.		Taft	La Follette	Cummins	Roosevelt	Absent	Not Voting	Taft States Delegates	La Follette	Cummins	Roosevelt	bsent	Vot Voting
		0			-			2	90-N. Y. 76	_	_	8		6
1	24— A		22	-		-		-	24-N. C. 1	_	-	1	_	22
	6A		6		-		-	1	10-N. D	10	-	_		-
П	18—A		2					24	48-Ohio . 14	_	-	-	-	34
H.	26C		12	-		_		-	20-Okla., 4		_	- 1	-	15
	12—C		14	_	_	7	_		10-Ore	-	_	8	_	2
Н	14—C		6				_	-	76-Penn . 9	_	_	2	1	62
	6-D		12	_			_		10-R. L 10	_	_	_	-	_
	12F		28	_	_		_	-	18-S. C. 16	_	-	-	1	1
н	28—G 8—1d		1	_	7		_	_	10—S. D —	5	-	5	_	_
П	58—II		2	_		53	11	2	24—Tenn., 23	-	-	1	-
	30—In		20	_	-	3	_	7	40-Tex 31	-	_		1	8
П	26-10		16	=	10	_	_	_	8Utah 8	_	_	-	-	_
	20—K	400000	2	_	_	_	_	13	8Vt 6	-	-	-	-	2
1			24	_		2	_	_	24—Va 22	_	_	_	- 1	1
÷	26—K	Y	20	_		_	_	_	14-Wash, 14	_	_	_	_	-
1	20—L: 12—M		700777	-		-	-	12	16-W. Va	-	-		-	16
	16M		1	_	_	9	1	5	26-Wis	26	_	_		-
1	36M		20	_			-	16	6-Wyo. 6	-	-	-	-	-
1	30-M		20	_		9	_	1	2-Alas. 2	_	-	-	_	_
	24—M		_	_	_	-	-	24	2-D. C. 2	-	_		-	_
-	20-M		17	_	-	-	-	3	6-Hawaii 6	-	-	_	-	-
	36-M		16	_	_	-	_	20	2Phil 2	_	-	-	-	-
1	8-M		8	_	_	_	-	_	2-P. R 2	-	_		-	-
	16N		_	_	_	2	_	14		-		•
	6-N		6	_	_	-	-	_	1078-T't'ls. 561	41	17	107	6	344
	8-N		8	_	_	_	_	-
1	28—N		2	-	_	-	agents.	26	*Two votes f	or H	ughe	s in	Penn	syl-
		. Mex	7	_	_	1	-	_	vania.

VOTED ON NOMINATIONS

per stock was beginning to boom that "GREAT VICTORY"—TAFT

From The Tribune Bureau. made the following statement to-night these rights.

a crisis more threatening and issues know. I may settle down on the farm more important than that of the election campaign which is to follow between the two great national parties.

"The question here at stake was whether the Republican party was to change its attitude as the chief conservator in the nation of constitutional representative government and was to weaken the constitutional guarantees of life liberty and property, and all other rights declared sacred in the Bill of Rights, by abandoning the principle of DEWEY'S PORT WINE WITH OLIVE OIL A wonderful Flesh and Blood Builder. H.T.DEWEY & SONS CO., 135 Fulton St., N. Y.

the absolute independence of the judi-Washington, June 22.-President Taft | ciary, essential to the maintenance of "The campaign carried on to seize the "A national convention of one of the Republican party and make it the invalue being $126,500. In addition, he great parties is ordinarily important strument of reckless ambition and the ganization for the election of a President, ciples of our government was so sud-The Chicago convention just ended is den and unexpected that time was not said Mr. Sherburne to-day. "I shall more than this, and is in itself the end given clearly to show to the people and of a pre-convention campaign presenting the party the dangers which confronted Danger Could Not Be Measured. "It was sought to break the wise and valuable tradition against giving more than two terms to any one man in the Presidency, and the danger from its breach could not be measured.

"The importance of the great victory

Eight Spiendid Trains Daily via Royal Blue Line to Baitimore and Washington.
"Every Even Hour" Liberty St. 8 A. M. to 6 P. M., also 7 P. M.; W. 23d St. 10 minutes earlier. Midnight train 11:50 P. M. W. 22d St. 1:30 A. M. Liberty St. Laitimore, Ohio, Reading, Jersey Central.—Advt.

Poll of Vote Gives Taft 561; Roosevelt, 107; La Follette, 41; Cummins, 17; Hughes, 2; Present, but Not Voting, 344.

COLONEL'S MEN GIVE A "SILENCE"

But Many Disregarded His Order Not to Vote at All and Followed Primary Instructions-Great Confusion in Convention Toward End, but Plans Go Through as Scheduled.

By a Staff Correspondent of The Tribune.]

Chicago, June 22.-William Howard Taft was renominated for President of the United States to-night by practically a two-thirds vote of the national convention, his total vote being 561, and James Schoolcraft Sherman was renominated for Vice-President by a vote of 597 immediately thereafter. Ex-President Roosevelt received 107 votes; Senator La Follette, 41: Senator Cummins, 17, and Justice Hughes, 2.

This has been the big day in the national convention. All the contests before the committee on credentials and the reports of that committee had been adopted by varying, but always safe, majorities.

A broad, progressive and sane platform was reported by ex-Vice-President Fairbanks for the committee on resolutions, and was adopted by a vote of 666 to 396, with sixteen absentees. Of those opposed to the platform, and indeed to everything else which would promote the nomination of Mr. Taft, 343, obeying the mandate of Colonel Roosevelt, solemnly announced when their names were called that they were "present, but not voting." This was as near to administering the "silence" proposed by James R. Garfield and Gifford Pinchot as the Roosevelt people

The delegates who refused to vote because Colonel Roosevelt had asked them not to constituted majorities in ten states, as follows: California, Kansas, Maine, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota and West Virginia.

ALLEN SINGS COLONEL'S SWAN SONG.

Henry J. Allen, of Kansas, was chosen to sing to the convention Colonel Roosevelt's swan song. He did it well, and strongly indorsed the colonel's plea to his supporters not to vote on any motion which might thereafter be put.

Colonel Roosevelt's denunciation of the convention and his impassioned plea for support stiffened up several delegations. New York voted 85 for the platform to 5 against it. Illinois, which had voted as strongly against the President at 51 to 7, swung around and voted 46 for the Taft platform to 9 against, with three absent. Idaho came over n a body, and so did Missouri. Gains were made in several states, and the Taft total-666-made it so obvious that the President was in full control of the convention and constantly gaining that the Roosevelt people became more ugly than ever

Colonel Bryan, who threw up his job as a reporter and left for the Democratic convention in Baltimore this afternoon, admitted he believed the success or failure of the Roosevelt third party movement depended wholly on the wisdom with which the Democrats chose their Presidential candidate. Mr. Bryan would not indicate what course he regarded as the wisest for the Democrats to pursue, but he intimated that the nomination of a conservative would surely pave the way for the success of the proposed New Nationalist party. He was cheered by a large section of the galleries and by most of the Roosevelt delegates as he

Theodore Roosevelt, who cannot bring himself to a realization of the fact that the "overwhelming demand" for his nomination is a myth, utilized his last opportunity in the convention when he asked Allen, of Kansas, to read his denunciation of the convention because it had failed to nominate him.

MANY WOUNDS ARE LEFT.

As a result of the reiteration of Colonel Roosevelt's cries of "fraud" and "thieves," no Republican convention ever adjourned leaving so many sores and with so little prospect that the wounds would be healed. But his determination to start a third party which he can dominate and which can be made first to serve his ambition may send thousands of Republicans back into the Taft camp.

For the present it is difficult to make any predictions based on the action of this convention. One thing is certain, however, as well as interesting. George W. Perkins assured Colonel Roosevelt to-day that he would finance the third party scheme and would continue to do so as long as it seemed to him that he could thereby promote the defeat of President Taft. And Amos Pinchot said that he and his brother could be counted on to contribute their share.

The Roosevelt policy is to organize committees in every county in every Republican state and to arouse the resentment of the people and to excite a sympathy for himself which he realizes cannot by any possibility effect his election, but which will, he believes, prevent President Taft from being elected.

Had Mr. Roosevelt had care for the Progressive movement he could easily have accomplished the nomination of Governor Hadley of Missouri for Vice-President to-day. But even when this was proposed to him he would have nothing of it.

LIVELY SCENES MARK FINAL DAY'S SESSION

Chicago, June 22.-President Taft was reominated to-night at the end of a wild ing and throwing their hats into the air. and riotous day which had produced every. One man in the very front of the conven-thing from argument to fist fights, behest of Theodore Roosevelt, refused to ing on a pair of gloves. vote on the nomination. The same portion and its supporters in the galleries shouted jeers and catcalls at the mention of the of nomination several times, once compelling a threat to clear the galleries if the Taft." As if by magic there appeared a big disturbance did not cease. When Senator red silk banner with the President's picture Root at another time tried to restore a sem- and the legend "Our Candidate" on it. blance of order the galleries turned on him Presently that found its way to the platand twitted him with the fact that he form and Mrs. John A. Logan, the widow once served as counsel for the notorious of General Logan, grabbed it from the man Tweed. That was the one side of the affair. who was carrying it and waved it in time men. They cheered and applauded, shouttion hall tore off his coat and swung that Nearly one-third of the convention, at the around his head, meantime carefully keep-

States in a Wild Parade

State standards were wrenched loose and President's name. It interrupted the speech a parade started around the hall, the marchers yelling "Four years more for The other was a la-minute outburst of en- to the cheering. It took Senator Root five thusiasm when Warren G. Harding, in his minutes to gavel the convention into somenominating speech, first mentioned Presi- thing remotely resembling quiet after that the name of the Liberal party."

Vice-President James S. Sherman was remaining in their seats and trying to nominated for Vice-President ...

Wild enthusiasm broke out when the California delegation, fresh from the share. He still has those shares, their

The delegates from the Coliseum convention arrived in a body and marched patted him on the back.

Continued on third page, fourth column

To-day and to-morrow, fair; light winds.

Another round of cheers was given when Representative George Norris, of have to find something to occupy my sang patriotic songs and imitated a steam roller. When news of the nomination nor have I ever smoked a pipe or of President Taft reached the hall, all the Roosevelt leaders seemed pleased. cigar. My advice to all young men is The information that Vice-President Sherman had been renominated appeared to add to their delight. Governor Johnson and Gifford Pinchot shook hands and declining years."